Men's hockey team returns home from Germany

The Concordia Stingers men's hockey team returned home from a four-game, 10-day tour of Germany last week with a great sense of history and patriotism, as well as memories to last a lifetime.

"The players were great ambassadors for Canada," said Concordia head coach Kevin Figsby. "When we arrived we knew no one but by the time we came home we had with all kinds of friends and family in Germany."

Concordia played four games in four locations and sold out every venue, including a 4,000-seat arena in Halle. The Stingers' visit to Halle was historic. It marked the first time a North American hockey team competed in the former East Germany. Even the torrential rains and flooding that plagued Germany couldn't dampen the local enthusiasm.

In Herford, more than 400 hockey fans waited for the Concordia players after their game. The Stingers spent three hours signing autographs before they could leave the arena. While in Hügelsheim, the team was honored at city hall and had dinner with the mayor and his family.

In between commitments, the players and staff explored the local culture, making stops at Martin Luther University and the home of composer George Frideric Handel. As well, several members of the Stingers made day trips to Berlin and Amsterdam.

"For most of the players it was their first trip to Europe," Figsby said. "For some of the players, it was their first time on an airplane. It was a great life experience for each of the them."

Sue Kaye invited to national team selection camp

Sue Kaye, a fifth-year defender with the Concordia Stingers women's hockey team, attended the national team selection camp Jan. 9-12 at the Beatrice Ice Gardens in Toronto.

The native of Truro, N.S., is considered one of the top 15 defenders in Canada. In Toronto, she was challenging for a spot on the Canadian team that will compete at the World Championships in Beijing, China, April 2-9.

At the selection camp, Kaye participated in a series of workouts as well as two Red and White, intrasquad games. In all, 30 athletes took part in the camp. Twenty-one players will represent Canada in Beijing. The team will be announced in late February.

Kaye was a member of Canada's Under-22 team in 1998-'99. She was named to the CIS All-Canadian team in 2001-'02. She was a member of the national champion Stingers in both 1998 and '99.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Jennifer Neill of the women's basketball team and Patrick Perrotte of the men's basketball team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Jan. 12.

Neill, a fifth-year guard and team captain, scored 12 points and picked up six rebounds in Concordia's tough 71-53 loss to the Bishop's Gaiters last Saturday. The LaSalle Que., native is a marketing major.

Perrotte, a native of Verdun, Que., scored 18 points and collected five rebounds in Concordia's 68-67 victory over the Bishop's Gaiters last Saturday. His performance helped the team notch its first league win and keeps the team in the playoff hunt. He is a first-year leisure science major.
